UM OFFERS COURSES
ON IMPROVING COLLEGE SKILLS

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana will offer three courses from June 17 through July 12 for people interested in starting or returning to college after a long absence from formal education.

The courses will also help current UM students who need improvement in math, reading, writing and study skills.

"Improving Reading and Study Skills" is designed to improve time management, lecture notetaking, concentration and memory. It will be held from 8 a.m. to 8:50 a.m. Monday through Thursday.

"Introductory to Algebra" is designed to help students with math anxiety and to prepare them for required math courses. The class will meet from 9 a.m. to 11:50 a.m. Monday through Friday.

"Basic Composition" will help students develop college-level writing skills. Each student's skill will be diagnosed to ensure that course content fits individual needs. The class will meet from 10:30 a.m. to 11:50 a.m. Monday through Friday.
